(cf. RNCIS: http://www.rncis.ro/portal/page?_pageid=117,70218&_dad=portal&_schema=PORTAL)
Title and name of qualification
Graduation title	Bachelor in Furniture and Interior Design
Name of qualification	Furniture and interior design	Qualification code	L50601001060	Contact person	Contact ACPART - ACPART

Identification elements related to qualification
Education level:	Bachelor Studies
Fundamental domain of study:	Arts and humanities
Branch of science:	Architecture and urbanism
Domain-based ranking:	Architecture and urbanism
Domain of study:	Architecture
Study programme:	Furniture and interior design
Total number of credits:	180
Length of study:	3 years
Prerequisites:
Details:

Summary of qualification

Professional competences:

Description, analysis and use of basic concepts and theories in the field.

Description, analysis and use of basic concepts and theories in the fields relevant to furniture design.

Definition of input data/specifications for the furniture/interior design project, as well as identification of specific needs by defining and implementing appropriate data selection and processing methods.

Setting up furniture design projects for small/large-scale (semi-)craft or industrial production.

Setting up interior design projects.

Collaboration and coordination with other related fields.

Cross- disciplinary competences:

Performing professional tasks individually according to specified requirements and imposed deadlines, in compliance with professional ethics, by following a predetermined work plan under qualified guidance.

Integration in work groups to ensure responsible performance of one's role in the design team; solving individual professional tasks (following established objectives) as well as developing organizational skills, team work skills, and lateral and horizontal communication skills.

Self-assessment of lifelong learning needs and ongoing adjustment to new realities and requirements; ongoing information and documentation in the field of interior design. Identification and effective application of various up-to-date information and communication methods and means.