

SYLLABUS OF THE DOCTORAL COURSE

ETHICS AND ACADEMIC INTEGRITY IN THE SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH AND RESULTS DISSEMINATION (EASRRD)

for the first-year advanced doctoral education program of the university year 2023-2024
2-nd Semester: 7 x 2 h courses, 7 x 2 h Seminars, 7 x 2 h Conferences, Credits: 15

A. LEARNING OBJECTIVES

1. Introduction to the topics of the ethics and academic integrity in the scientific research and dissemination of the results.
2. Application of the scientific research and communication rules in relation to the objectives, strategy and specific methods of the research activities, respectively of the presentation and evaluation of the research results used by the international scientific community.
3. Achievement of the doctoral research project in order to sustain it in the supervisory team during September 2024.

B. COMPETENCES

The course contributes to the training of the doctoral student as an independent scientific researcher, able to integrate in the scientific community by adopting research methodologies, observing general and specific deontological norms of the research field, manifesting attitudes in this context and the ability to communicate and disseminate the results in the scientific community.
