

GRADUATION COMPETENCES FROM UPT:

Main field: Humanities Science and Arts

Master's Degree Program:

„TRENDS, NEW MATERIALS AND TECHNOLOGIES IN INTERIOR ARCHITECTURE”

(Master's degree field of study: Architecture)

No.	Competences
1	The identification, and the implementation of concepts, theories and the main methods of architecture and interior architecture; the application of this notions in the professional practice. The use of basic elements in architectural design.
2	The explanation and the interpretation of informations regarding different types of interior architecture design projects.
3	To identify / define the needs of interior architecture ( specification) and elaborating certain projects for a public space with a small /medium degree of complexity, in terms of qualified assistance.
4	The appropriate use of specific evaluation criteria and methods to assess the quality, the advantages and limitations for a particular project of interior design for a home or public space.
5	Develop professional interior architecture projects for public spaces using well known methods of design.
6	Respecting the individual professional tasks according to specified requirements, imposed deadlines, and professional ethics and following a predetermined work schedule, professionally guided.
7	The integration in a team in order to develop teamwork skills; project completion in time (in concordance with the objectives) but also improving the management abilities and collaboration with other members of the team subordinates and superiors.
8	Using professional experiences in order to improve skills and competences.